

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1908

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

EVER NOTICE IT?

I've noticed, this, the fairest maid,
With hair like gold fine-spun,
With eyes of blue that beam on you,
Will sometimes say: "I done."

Mr. Eugene Davis of Helena, one of Mason county's prominent citizens, is ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. Bradford Clift of the Washington neighborhood expects soon to locate in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Lizzie Edgington will represent the Rebekah Lodge of this city in the meeting which convenes in Covington September 23d.

Dr. A. O. Taylor of this city was called in consultation yesterday at the bedside of Dr. Wilson, who is ill with typhoid fever at his home in Minerva.

Mr. Nolin Perrine, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for many weeks, was able to enjoy an outing in a buggy yesterday and receive warm greetings from his many friends.

Notice to Contractors!

Yours for Business,

Maysville Coal Co

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

A dollar of 1858 is worth $20.

William Jennings Bryan, Jr., is to wed Miss Helen Burger of Milwaukee, Wis.

Bowling Green will ask for the 1909 meeting of the Kentucky Postmasters' Association.

Lexington is to have a free clinic and medical dispensary, where the needy poor may have the best medical attention and free medicines.

The National Bank of Cynthiana is to build a new home to cost $25,000. A large ornamental glass dome is to be the architectural feature of the new structure.

The secret marriage of Dr. John R. Wathen, a well-known Louisville physician, and Mrs. Ada Lee Piers is announced to have taken place at Jeffersonville, Ind., June 6th, last. The bride is a native of Vanceburg and is the daughter of Henry S. Paynter, a prominent Cincinnati lawyer.

A good deal is written about the June bride, but the young man who marries in September, if he is the right sort, will never have occasion to regret it.

Snuggly encased in a flannel cloak and with its head resting on an eiderdown pillow, a 10-days-old baby boy, handsomely dressed, was found in the lavatory of a Louisville and Nashville passenger coach at Louisville Monday.

Mrs. Mary B. Green, experienced boat commander and pilot on the Ohio, Kanawha, Mississippi river steamers, has retired from the work after a service of ten years. She was the only woman on Western waters who possessed the authority of the United States Government to command and pilot steam vessels between Pittsburgh and St. Louis. Mrs. Green has turned over the command of the steamer Greenland to one of her husband's employees, and hereafter will reside in the fine home Mr. Green and herself have established in Hyde Park, Cincinnati.

We have a large supply of MASON JARS and RUBBERS

Also Tin Cans for canning fruits and vegetables for your winter supply. Our prices will be as low as any one, as we bought before the advance. Get our prices before you buy. The best is always the cheapest. Globe Stamps with cash purchases.

THE QUALITY GROCERS.

MASONIC TEMPLE BUILDING

The sixth annual reunion of the descendants of James and Nelson Prewitt was held Thursday last at "Edgewood," the old Goff homestead at Indian Fields, Clark county. Mason county was represented by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Downing and children, Charles Goff, Margaret, Mary Hall, Patay Prewitt.

Saturday the tobacco fields of Bud Taylor, Noah Nichols, Clay Drennan, William Leech, Lucian Hubbard, Will Carter and Bart Calvert, all Equity men of Caldwell county, were visited by unknown persons, who cut down many plants and placed bundles of switches with the tobacco which was stacked in piles.

Hon. James N. Kehoe, Democratic nominee for Congress from the Ninth District, was in Louisville Monday night in conference with Chairman Ben Johnson of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, Judge S. W. Hager, Chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, and Henry Prewitt, Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committees.

A refreshing shower fell in this city yesterday.

BUTTERFIELD—HAWKINS.

Mr. C. A. Butterfield, aged 21, and a widow trimmer by occupation, and Miss Attabelle Hawkins, a handsome young lady, who confessed to 21 years, both giving their residence as Covington, Ky., secured a marriage license from Deputy County Clerk Lindsay, and were wedded in this city yesterday.

Daughter: In reply to your note will say: "Give your children Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea each week; protects them from diseases, keeps and makes them well. Signed, Mother." 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Thos. J. Chenoweth.

No Matter What Price Suit You Want for Yourself or Boy You Will Gain in Quality and Save in Price With Us. Our

Every job in our house reduced. Don't you think you had better come in before the other fellow gets all the bargains? We also have a number of good, nice-looking, serviceable, SECOND-HAND rigs that we can sell very cheap.

It Will Pay You to Investigate!

MIKE BROWN The Square Deal Man

Personal

Miss Anna Fugate of Latonia is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wikoff.

Miss Lillie Kellar of Cincinnati is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann.

Mrs. Susan Mangan has returned from a month's visit to relatives in Cincinnati.

Calvin Caldwell of Winchester is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wedding and family.

Mrs. M. J. Kenney and daughter, Miss Agnes, are visiting Mr. Edward Kenney and family at Columbus, O.

Mr. Martin Furlong of Millersburg has returned, after several days' visit with J. B. Furlong of Orangeburg.

Mrs. Herbert Frankeberger of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis of Market street.

Master Clay Sulzer Smith, one of THE LEDGER's faithful carriers, is enjoying a visit with Eugene Gianni in Newport.

Miss Minnie Gunn returned home Monday, after a several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Weimer, at Columbus, O.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Letton have returned to their home at Jacktown, Bourbon county, after a visit to friends in this section.

Miss Fanny Whittington returned home to Cincinnati yesterday morning, after a ten days' visit to the family of her brother, Mr. Ed Whittington, in East Second street.

Miss Katie Mae Sammons of West Front street is entertaining a charming guest in the person of Miss Mary Daugherty of Lexington. The young ladies are classmates at Cardome College, Georgetown, Ky.

Police Court.

About two as tough customers as go down the pike faced Judge Whitaker in the Police Court yesterday on a disorderly conduct charge sworn out by residents of Fourth street, East of Plum.

The prisoners were Amanda Dempsey and Sis Porter, two old timers, who are the dread of the neighborhood in which they reside. Amanda was fined and costed $25.50. Sis was more fortunate—she escaped with a $23.90 plaster.

MR. THOMAS COLEMAN.

The venerable Thomas Coleman died after a short illness last afternoon at 2:30 at his home, corner Union and Second streets, with heart failure, aged 78 years.

He was born in Ireland and came to this country when quite a youth, having lived in this city 62 years and resided at the home place where he died for 52 years.

He was an upright, worthy citizen, respected and esteemed by his neighbors and friends. His wife preceded him to the grave a little over two years ago.

He leaves two daughters, Misses Katie and Ella Coleman; two step-daughters, Mrs. Mary Hickey of Erlanger, Ky., and Mrs. E. C. Leonard of East Fourth street; two sons, Joseph and Michael Coleman of this city.

Funeral tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Interment in Catholic Cemetery at Washington.

A Silhouette in Dress Goods.

A black aspect indeed! Every yard of goods concerned in the offering is black as the ace of spades and the ebony shade is tinged even a deeper hue by the gloom of such price reductions.

Various reasons, all valid, actuate these price cuts of one-fourth to one-half. And they affect good staple materials—not shop-worn rubbish. Price list:

$2 Silk Voile $1.

$1 1/2 Wool Voile $1.

$1 1/2 Mohair $1.

$1 Mohair 75c.

75c Mohair 50c.

Every piece 45 inches wide.

WE HAVE THE LARGEST, MOST ATTRACTIVE LINE OF WOMEN'S SUITS WE'VE EVER DISPLAYED.

Women's Hosiery Bargains

We find our stock of drop-stitch stockings in two colors, not sold down to the limit we demand so these gray and cardinal boot top lace hose in a guaranteed fifty-cent quality of gauze lisle are now three pairs for $1. To save fifty cents on three pairs of stockings is no small consideration and you'll doubly appreciate the economy when you see the quality.

Hat Pins

Some gilt hat pins that are tarnished have been reduced from 25c to 5c. Their usefulness is unimpaired—they're both good enough and pretty enough for the little lady's school hat. Some large top, filagree, gun metal hat pins have lingered over long so the price drops from 25c to 10c. Perfect in every way, the change from 25c to 10c simply means quick marching orders.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

THE 2,500th performance by the original company playing "Ben Hur," Klaw & Erlanger's great Biblical play, will be given in Elmira, N. Y., Tuesday, October 1st. This is a remarkable record.

JOHN FOX, JR., is reported engaged to FRITZI SCHEFF, the comic opera star. If JOHN marries FRITZI it won't be long until he is ready to write a sequel to his novel, "Hell Fer Sartin."—Cynthiana Democrat.

THE American battleship fleet is proving a big advertisement for Uncle Sam, and incidentally is affording the cities on the under side of the globe a chance to exploit themselves and their genial hospitality.

JUSTICE at last! Merry Widows and Gainsboroughs and other mammoth female headgear will please go way back and sit down. The New York theaters when they sell tickets make the women agree to remove their hats. The agreement is printed on the ticket. The world do move.

MR. BRYAN harps about the Republicans wasting the people's money, and then calls upon the innocent farmer to cough up for him.

WILLIAM ELLIS COREY asks who MR. KERN is. Well, for one thing, the Minister that married him never had any trouble with his Church because of it.—Concord Monitor.

EX-SENATOR WILLIAM LINDSAY of Kentucky, who bolted BRYAN and voted for PALMER and BUCKNER, and who tacitly aided in the election of McKINLEY twice and ROOSEVELT once, has declared for BRYAN and is taking an active part in the campaign for the Nebraskan. As it is the same old Bryan and the same old regime of empty promises and theories, one can only stop to wonder if the big Senator, like Marse HENRY, is showing signs of intellectual and political senility.

MARSE HENRY's aristocratic Publicity Bureau is prostituting its refined and exquisite talent to getting down on all fours and begging the Negroes to vote for BILL BRYAN. The colored voter who knows anything knows that WATTERSON is merely a gentlemanly LeGree, who was nurtured and pampered in the old South by his father's Negro slaves. Don't be hoodwinked, colored people. Marse HENRY is a wily old hybrid Democratic bird, and he is now at the head of the Bureau mainly for the purpose of strewing bird line and setting "literary snares" to entrap the ignorant and unwary Republicans.

Do People Know Values?

I should say yes. Do people grasp a square deal? Emphatically yes. Did you see that crowd at Winter's Store Saturday? They came for bargains, and got 'em. My! I did not know there was so much money in the country. Remember, this great Slaughter Sale continues daily until all that I own in Kentucky is sold. No deception; I am going to move to Texas. WILLSON AND COX

Breezy Chat About the Men From Maysville, Our
Two Governors

Frankfort Cor. Courier-Journal.

Things have been running easy at the State House this last week, all of the State officials taking a sort of rest while Governor Willson, the human dynamo, is out of town. Not that the business of the State is not being transacted well; it is, but that strained and hustling air which everybody wears when the Governor is on deck is missing. Governor Willson is an indefatigable worker, as his stenographer and Secretary can bear witness, and he keeps things on the jump while he is here. To work until midnight is a common thing with Governor Willson. Of course, when a Governor sets for himself the task of answering every letter which he receives, and going into the minutest detail of everything in those letters, that Governor must sit up late or he will get behind.

Governor Willson does that. He answers every letter which he receives, and as the mail is so large every day that it wears out a man to carry it only a few blocks, one has some idea of what the Governor has cut out for himself. The Secretary to the Governor usually answers some hundreds of the letters which are received at the Executive office, those letters being applications for pardons or written by cranks or just the usual miscellaneous letter which comes to every man of prominence. But Governor Willson does not have it that way. He follows the line that because the letters are addressed to him, he should answer them. Not being content to answer them briefly, the Governor writes voluminously to all his correspondents. If one wants a long letter one need only write to the Governor and one will hear a lot of things. It keeps the Governor busy doing all this letter writing, and he is up to his ears in work all the time. Still, it is Governor Willson's failing that he writes too much, his friends say. They cite as an instance a pardon which was issued the other day. The pardon was issued to a man convicted of petit larceny and sentenced to jail for six months. The Governor used three typewritten pages telling why he issued that pardon. It is good for the spacewriters, but hard on the stenographer.

Now Governor Cox is in the chair and everybody is taking things easy except Governor Cox, who is besieged by pardon-seekers. For some reason it has always been the Lieutenant-Governor who is relied upon to issue pardons. One reason for this is that the Lieutenant-Governor, acting only once or twice a year, does not have the same number of cases to consider as does the Governor, who works all the year. The man who listens to some hundreds of pleas for pardons every year grows weary of the details, and while he may not get callous, he certainly is not prone to be as merciful as a man who hears only a few tales of woe. Whether this is the reason or not, it is undoubtedly a fact that the Lieutenant-Governor has his hands full on those occasions when he is acting Governor. Now, if things keep on as they have been, they are going to wear out Governor Cox and put him in the class of the callous, for he is hearing so many tales of woe that he is beginning to get accustomed to them. They have been running down here from all over the State this last week hunting for pardons, and some of them have been getting them. But they don't "work" Governor Cox. He is not issuing pardons unless he has pretty good reason to believe that the convicted man deserves to go free.

Over in the lobby of the hotel the other night a man walked up to Governor Cox and said:

"Haven't I met you before?"

"Yes, I think I met you in Maysville," said Governor Cox.

"Oh, yes, I remember now; you were selling wall paper and varnish, weren't you?"

"No, I was not selling that," replied the Acting Governor.

"Well, what is your line?" asked the stranger, who was a traveling man.

"I met you in Maysville, you know," softly said Governor Cox.

"Why, sure, I remember now. You were selling paints."

STORY ABOUT GOVERNOR COX.

Speaking of Governor Cox, a man from Maysville was telling a story about the Acting Governor the other day, and that shows how big a heart he has. A man in Maysville who is trifling and who can work, but will not unless he is forced to do so, had done Governor Cox several little favors at odd times and the Governor liked him. The improvident one was arrested one day on the charge of vagrancy. He was put up on the auction block, and about to be sold to the highest bidder to work for six months. Governor Cox was in the crowd, which had gathered to see the sale, and his sympathy was awakened for the poor fellow about to be sold like a slave. He slipped up behind the vagrant and shoved a $5 bill into the man's pocket.

The Sheriff went about his work and called the alleged vagrant up before him, to have him show cause why he should not be sold. The man, ashamed and sullen, in despair pushed his hands into his frayed trousers, just by way of habit. A look of great surprise came over his face and then a grin of appreciation spread, beginning at one corner of his mouth. His hand closed convulsively in his pocket, and he said to the Sheriff:

"I object to this sale, for I am no vagrant. Here is a $5 bill which I have. No man who has money in his pocket is a vagrant."

The sale ended then and there, and everybody wondered where this man had secured $5. But he was not sold as a vagrant and he is the devoted follower of Governor Cox now, and would do anything on earth for the Acting Governor.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Maysville Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Maysville who so testified years ago now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Maysville kidney sufferers.

Mrs. John T. Wallingford, 103 Commerce street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family with most beneficial results, and it gives me pleasure to corroborate the testimonial given in their favor some years ago by Mr. Wallingford. As stated then, he suffered a great deal from backache, failing to obtain relief from any of the remedies which he used. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, he obtained a box from J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and had only taken them a short time when a complete cure was effected. The fact that he has remained free from any recurrence of the trouble is sufficient evidence of the sterling value of this remedy. I have also used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have always afforded me the same relief as they did my husband."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

VERMONT!

Swept By Republicans—Initial Victory For G. O. P.—Bryanism Dead

The Republicans retained complete control of legislative and executive branches of the Government of Vermont in the election yesterday, the party endorsing the party ticket for State officers, headed by George H. Prouty of Newport, electing to Congress from the First District David J. Foster of Burlington for another term, and from the Second District, Frank Plumley of Northfield, for the first time and choosing a majority of the State Legislature, which will select a successor to the late Senator Redfield Proctor.

The plurality of 28,000 was the smallest on a Presidential year since 1892 when it was only 17,956 and was followed by a Democratic National victory, but it was larger than in 1888 and only slightly less than in 1900.

The Independence party polled about 1,000 votes, while the Prohibition about the same.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for anyone that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials.

COMING EVERY DAY....

My heavy purchases of goods for the fall and winter trade. When all in my stock will be complete and of the very best that can be produced.

ALWAYS IN STOCK,

A complete line of Red Canvass Hams and Breakfast Bacon and finest Leaf Lard, packed specially for my trade from young, healthy hogs. The only house in Maysville that handles these specially made goods.

PERFECTION FLOUR,

Ground from new wheat, is now coming, and as the wheat crop in the section where this famous Flour is made is unusually fine, I have no hesitancy in offering the Flour to my trade as the very best that can be produced. Every barrel guaranteed.

Fine Blended Coffee is one of my hobbies. I buy my Coffee green from one of the largest importers in large quantities, have them roasted as I need them and they are always sold to my trade fresh. I have no competition in these fine goods, either in quality or price.

FINE TEAS

A specialty. For those who use iced teas I recommend "Heno" Tea, a very fine mixed tea sold only in packages.

A big supply of TIN CANS and Mason Fruit Jars at lowest prices. In fact, my stock is always full, complete and up-to-date in every respect. No state of unwholesome goods ever offered.

Cash paid for Butter, Eggs and such Country Produce as I can handle in my business.

Always a full supply of Fruits and Vegetables.
500 best cure Country Hams wanted.

EMERGENCY CURRENCY

By the Millions is Being Turned Out Daily at Washington

Director Ralph of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing is making noteworthy progress in getting out the new notes under the Emergency Currency Act passed at the last session of Congress.

About $95,000,000 has already been printed and delivered to the Treasury, and it is expected that the daily output from this time on will be fully $2,500,000.

If this is kept up the full $500,000,000 authorized by the act will be printed and ready for delivery to the banks as required by February, 1909.

It is the purpose of the Treasury Department to substitute these notes for those now in use, as soon as possible.

The new notes differ from those now in use only by the addition of the words, "or other securities," to the legend on their face, so that it will read: "This note is secured by United States bonds or other securities."

How to Cure Constipation

Simple Home Remedy That Is Safe and Pleasant

Few people escape constipation. Catching cold, over eating, worry, lack of exercise, failure to answer promptly the calls of nature, diseased or weakened system or strong medicines may cause it.
The too common practice of taking salts, or pills or some such violent cathartic has always done more harm than good. They make the bowels act quickly and violently simply because they irritate them, and leave them in a worse condition than before.

What is needed is a mild easy herb laxative, that gives regular daily movements in all cases, yet does not pain or gripe, and which will strengthen the bowels and tone up the system instead of depleting it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin taken at night before going to bed will bring an easy pleasant natural movement in the morning even in the most obstinate cases and without any bad effects. No pain, no gripe and it is so safe and pleasant to take, mothers give it to their babies with splendid results. It is an aid to digestion and tones up the system as well as cures bowel trouble. Dr. L. E.
Covey, Savannah, Tenn., writes: "I get better results from it than any Pepsin I ever used." Dr. T. Jones, Osgood, Mo., says: "I consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best of all laxatives." Mrs.
Almon Willis, Jamaica, Vt., says: "I truly believe it saved my little boy's life."
Rev. A. J. Fletcher, Rutherford, Tenn., says: "I am 30 years old and your Syrup Pepsin has cured me of dyspepsia and bowel trouble."

W. D. Jackson, Burns Station, Tenn., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and dyspepsia for nine years, and found no relief until I used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin." All druggists sell it at 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

We are glad to send a free sample to any reader of this paper who has never used it and will give it a fair trial. Write today to Pepsin Syrup Co., 303 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.
